

BUSINESS OWNER'S PRAYER

by Bishop Alvin D. Stewart, Jr.

Father, in the name of Jesus, I thank you for trusting me with the vision to start this business. You said that if I would be faithful over that which is another man's, you will give me my own. And you also promised that if I am faithful over a few things, you would make me ruler over many things. Father, I accept the charge and responsibility to help build your Kingdom through this business enterprise you have graced me to establish.

Lord, as you have entrusted this business into my stewardship, I come to you as did Solomon asking that you grant me your divine wisdom. Let your spirit of wisdom and revelation be upon me so that the eyes of my understanding can be enlightened. Reveal your divine purpose and will for this business and anoint me to govern and steward it as a Kingdom-centered enterprise. This business will stand as a beacon of light and hope in the community. This business will serve as an economic stabilizer in the community, providing jobs, resources, and hope to everyone it touches in any capacity.

Father, I decree that this business will operate in integrity and be found to be above reproach. It will not bring shame or disgrace to your name or to the Kingdom. We will operate in excellence and raise the standard of proficiency, innovation, and productivity in our industry. This business will successfully and seamlessly merge ministry and the marketplace. Release now, oh Lord, all of the resources necessary to cause this vision and business to thrive and prosper. Let there be an anointing for creativity and witty ideas upon this business. And let the glory, authority, and power of your Kingdom rest upon everything we do.

I thank you now, Lord, for setting your hand upon this business. I understand that it still belongs to you, and I am honored that you would allow me to operate and build your business. Let your divine presence and Spirit rest, rule, and abide in every area of this business. I trust that my steps have been ordered; that your word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path. I delight myself in your law, which will cause me to make my way prosperous. There is no lack in this business, and we are always profitable. Continue to enlarge our borders and increase influence and presence in the industry. Thank you for your favor and blessing, in Jesus' name, Amen.
