

MEN'S PRAYER

by Bishop Alvin D. Stewart, Jr., D.D.

Father, in the name of Jesus, I come to you as the priest of my household and as a king and lord in the earth. I stand as a man in proper position and relationship with you, which gives me the authority to rule, govern, and dominate in all you have given me to do and accomplish in the earth. I thank you for eyes that can see the Kingdom, ears that can hear your voice, a mouth that declares your word, and a mind that is sound, sober, and synchronized with Christ. I am a conqueror and a ruler of nations. I am an example of truth and integrity in the earth. I am a faithful steward of the riches and mysteries of the Kingdom of God. I am a protector and guardian of my natural and spiritual families. I am a pillar of strength and faith, a voice of wisdom and reason, and a teacher of excellence and temperance. Thank you, Lord, for the investment you have made into my life and the vision and purpose you have planted in my heart and spirit.

Father God I ask you to guide me in pursuit of your divine will. Continue to cause the work of my hands to prosper so that I may be able to impact more lives for your glory. Teach me how to protect the value and integrity of my name. Increase me in the ways of business and industry. Enlarge my capacity to envision, plan, and strategize. Build my faith to believe for the impossible. Strengthen my resolve where I have become weary. Fortify my relationships where I am in need of comfort and safety. Encourage my heart where I have been disappointed. And increase my passion and drive as I build, create, and conquer according to the vision I serve and the vision you have placed in my spirit.

Lord I realize that my words have power. Help me to be careful in my speech, because I understand that what I say can either build or destroy; speak life or death; bring joy or sadness. Therefore, I shall be a man that is quick to hear, yet slow to speak and slow to wrath. I shall be a man whose words carry influence, because they are filled with the spirit of God in wisdom and anointing. When decisions need to be made, people will look to me. When the world needs answers, they will look to me. Where there is turmoil and confusion I will bring peace and unity.

Father, I pray now for my brothers around the globe. Touch them with your Holy Ghost. Fill them with your love and power. Change them, as you have changed me, into men of integrity, honor, and nobility. Help them to see themselves as kings so they, too, can take their rightful places in the earth. Let your churches be filled with men operating in their Kingdom authority. Let your altars be filled as men repent and accept Jesus as Lord. Let men, once again, become the heads of their household and bring stability in our families.

MEN'S DECREES:

I am a man of God—a priest, king, and Lord. I am bold, confident, and strong. I have been forged in the fires of the Holy Ghost and able to defeat any adversary. My family loves me. I am the cornerstone of my community. I am a guardian of my faith and a son and resource for my church. My name is influential. My reputation is impeccable. I am faithful and trustworthy, accountable and responsible. Everything I do prospers because I live my life according to Kingdom principles. I am a man of prayer, passion, and power. Because I have a voice in the heavens with God, I have power and influence in the earth with men. I am God's man called, chosen, anointed, and appointed for such a time as this. AMEN.
