

PRAYER FOR HEALING

by Bishop Alvin D. Stewart, Jr.

Father God, I thank you right now for who you are in my life. You are my strength, my help, my hope, and my redeemer. You are Creator, and by the power of your Word you brought chaos into order so that life could exist and thrive. And it is you, Lord, who have created and formed humanity; spirit, soul and body are the result of your divine craftsmanship. You stitched me together in my mother's womb and you determined the functions of every part of my being. I am a part of your creation and you alone are able to bring every aspect of who I am into divine alignment so that my whole man functions according to your design.

Now Lord, you said the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty through You to the pulling down of strongholds and the casting down of vain imaginations and every high thing that exalts itself against you. Therefore, in the name of Jesus I speak to my own thoughts and imaginations and I cancel every image, seed and idea the enemy has planted in an attempt to rule my spirit, soul and body. Depression, oppression, mental illness and other forms of mental and emotional brokenness have no authority or place in my life, because I have the mind of Christ. As I let this mind be in me that was also in Christ Jesus, my imagination is filled with images of healing, health, wholeness and long life. I see myself healed. I see myself delivered. I see myself joyful. I see myself stable. I see myself as loved and accepted. I see myself according to Your word, Father.

I am kept in perfect peace, because my mind is continually stayed on you. I meditate on your word, which is causing my life to flourish like a tree by the river; my life will not wither, because your word builds and feeds my faith to experience miracles and healing. I imagine living in wholeness and peace in every area of my life so that it manifests in my life. Daily, I only think on things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, and are of good report, giving no room for thoughts that would rob me or undermine my complete healing. I fortify the walls of my spirit, soul and body and I remain vigilant and consistent so that no enemy can enter into my gates. My atmosphere is always one of love, hope, joy, faith and expectation.

Every physical infirmity, sickness or disease must not only leave my thoughts but my body as well. Jesus was wounded, bruised and chastised so that with every stripe He received I was healed. Therefore, every infirmity, sickness and disease is in violation of Kingdom authority and I command you to leave my coasts and my borders. They are driven out forcibly, because as I declare the word of the Lord in this prayer, the angels are hearkening and making war against every enemy on my behalf. I have a right to be healed and whole by virtue of my faith and relationship with the Father through Jesus Christ. I reject every voice of doubt and fear as I declare that I am HEALED, spirit, soul and body. No harm or danger can come to me; death MUST pass over by virtue of the blood of Jesus that covers my life. My faith is my shield, your Word is my sword, and I always walk in your peace. No weapon of spiritual, mental, emotional or physical disease formed against me will be able to accomplish its intended purpose against my life. God is making all things new in me! I give you glory, honor, and praise, in Jesus' name. AMEN.
